Elk Point 4-H Multi Club on parade

Ashley Bristow and Morgan Baker were still smiling near the end of a long parade route as tossed candy to the crowd as they accompanied the large and impressive Elk Point 4-H Multi Club float, which along with members, included a lamb from the club's newest project and Cleaver the 4-H beaver mascot. The float placed first in the Children's Clubs and Organizations category of Elk Point's Canada Day Parade.

New garbage truck leads to new bylaw

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Within hours of the arrival of Elk Point's new garbage truck last Monday, Town Council sat down to discuss a new garbage bylaw to go with it.

The current bylaw, passed in March of 1998, requires updating due to changes in regulations regarding the weight a worker is permitted to lift. Other changes will also be incorporated, including allowable waste receptacles. The new truck could be adapted for the use of side-loading containers, but that is not being considered at this time.

Council agreed that lawn clippings should not be sent to the landfill, but should instead be composted. The clippings are very heavy and the town is charged by the weight of garbage they deposit. Clippings also take up valuable space in landfill pits.

Council would encourage homeowners to recycle lawn clippings instead, either at the Elk Point transfer station's compost area, where garden and yard waste can be deposited, or in compost bins in their own yards.

Everyone loves a parade

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

From the first wave of elaborately decorated bicycles to the fleet of fire trucks that brought up the rear, Elk Point's Canada Day Parade was a true celebration of community, with over 40 group, business and individual entries all decked out to celebrate the nation's birthday.

A large contingent of RCMP, prepared to track down perpetrators by boat, ATV, motorcycle, bicycle or on their own shiny boots, led the main parade, followed by the pipe band and parade marshal Doug Bassett, who rode the route in style in Glen Scott's bright red convertible.

Payton Vogel placed first in the Decorated Bicycles category, with Kolbie Poitras second, Mikayla Verenka third and Kayley Quinney fourth.

Kolbie, who was dressed as a horse and rider, also represented Stoney Lake Stampede Association, and placed third in the Adult Clubs and Organizations category, where Heritage Lodge placed first, Greater Lakeland Rural Crime Watch and fourth to Elk Point Health Care Centre Auxiliary.

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club and the Northeast 4-H Region won the Children's Clubs and Organizations category with their entry, with Elk Point Christian Community Church's youngsters placing second.

Scarlet coated RCMP, and kilted bagpipers led the parade, MLA Ray Danyluk and wife Lorraine rode behind a vintage tractor, parade marshal Doug Bassett cruised in Glen Scott's GTO.

Rain, Rain, go away come back another day ...

Fact: Footprints roof leaked.

Fact: Health Inspector demanded for the roof to be sealed.

Fact: It's against Alberta Building Code to seal a tin roof, it has to breathe.

Fact: The building that Footprints is in has a FLAT tin roof.

Question: What happens when water damns up on the roof and runs over the ribs of the tin?

Fact: There has been a food establishment at Footprints location for almost 30 years.

Fact: There has always been water catchers up above the drop ceiling to catch any water that enters the building.

Question: Why all of a sudden is this a problem? Why did they fail? Who was responsible for that failure?

Good luck and best wishes to Tina, her family and the Footprints staff in their relocation and business venture.

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The 2011 Riverland Adventure Challenge has been declared a success, and the Friends and staff of Fort George and Buckingham House are busy planning their next event, the annual Saskatoon Festival on Sunday, July 17.

This year's Saskatoon Festival brings together crafters, local history buffs and those who are eagerly awaiting the year's first taste of saskatoon pie, along with some talented young fiddlers who will perform between 2 and 3:30 p.m. The open-air craft sale runs from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. with a variety of items on offer. Thirty saskatoon pies will be served with or without and ice cream, and barbecued burgers, coffee and soft drinks will also be for sale while quantities last.

The historic site's interpretive staff will be on hand to take visitors on tours of the indoor multimedia gallery and down the winding trail to the original sites of the rival North West Company and Hudson's Bay Company fur trading forts, built in 1792. The staff also has fun in store for the Big weekend!

Many communities and many events claim to have "something for everyone." In Elk Point this past weekend, we either did, or came extremely close, with the myriad activities surrounding Canada Day, combined with the 49th annual Stoney Lake Rodeo and the local remote control aircraft club's Family Fun Fly.

All three events brought in record crowds of people from as far away as Australia and Washington State to enjoy the fun and festivities. The weather cooperated from pancake breakfast time on Friday until almost the end of the team roping on Sunday, except for the wind, which grounded some of the RC aircraft, and that's reasonably good for a long weekend.

What a great way to kick off the summer holidays!

YOUR VIEWS

Rodeo, rewards, "Remember when..."

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 5 IN...

1986

Bareback bronc rider Ted Hehr of St. Paul and bullrider Dion Roscoe of Elk Point were among the winners at Stoney Lake Rodeo, where Randy Wickham whooped and hollered his way to a win in the wild ride and the Ference team won the Wild Steer and Stoneboat Race. Vegreville Member of Parliament Don Mazankowski was named Deputy Prime Minister.

1991

Adam Kleeberger, Dean Sereda, Leanne Wilson, Kali Cousins, Jennifer Flanders, Cristine Lowe, Melanie Johnson, Benjamin Peterson, Sarah Klauke, Kristin McMillan, Shaun Morozuk, Vicki Kleeberger, Kristi Rae, Jordan Bassett, Jennifer Kadutski, Tyler Warawa and Charissa Brown were the recipients of the Grace Franks Awards at Elk Point Elementary School. Town council dealt with the resignations of Community Services director Stephen Montgomery and Coun. Morris Cooper as taxpayers faced an increase of between 4.4 and 7.3 per cent.

1996

Fifteen members of F. G. Miller's Class of 1996 were honoured at a very special commencement ceremony, with valedictorian Christina Sereda receiving a University of Alberta Scholastic Distinction scholarship. Elk Point's elevators bit the dust in a massive demolition project that left Railway Avenue looking like a tornado had swept through town.

2001

Tyson Moneta, Kelsey Vinge, Kate Mosley, Alanna Ockerman, Kameron Ballas, Courtney MacLellan, Sarah Zarowny, Corey Smereka, Brittany Ballas, Amanda Marianchuk, Chelsea Richards, Erin Lindquist, Kody Wickham and April Bresky were Elk Point Elementary's best all-around students, receiving the Grace Franks Awards. Bailey Youngmans and Ian Jurak won the Lois Nichols Memorial Award at Heinsburg Community School.

2006

F. G. Miller's Class of 2006 shared bittersweet memories at their prom, where Jessica Lee and Stephanie Ference gave a brief history of each student grad parent Carol Lee asked, "Remember when ..." and teacher and grad parent Debbie Poulin couldn't resist giving one last quiz to make sure the class was ready to face the world. Retiring teachers Sylvia Conrad and Orest Sereda were honoured for their years of service and commitment at Elk Point Elementary's Awards Day.

GUEST COLUMN

Real dreams

There once was a man whose life-long dream was to board a cruise ship and sail the Mediterranean Sea. He dreamed of walking the streets of Rome, Athens, and Istanbul. He saved every penny until he had enough for his passage. Since money was tight, he brought an extra suitcase filled with cans of beans, boxes of crackers, and bags of powdered lemonade, and that is what he lived on every day. He would have loved to take part in the many activities offered on the ship – working out in the gym, playing miniature golf, and swimming in the pool. He envied those who went to movies, shows, and cultural presentations. And, oh, how he yearned for only a taste of the amazing food he saw on the ship – every meal appeared to be a feast! But the man wanted to spend so very little money that he didn't participate in any of these. He was able to see the cities he had longed to visit, but for the most part of the journey, he stayed in his cabin and ate only his humble food. On the last day of the cruise, a crew member asked him which of the farewell parties he would be attending. It was then that the man learned that not only the farewell party but almost everything on board the cruise ship – the food, the entertainment, and all the activities – had been included in the price of his ticket. Too late the man realized that he had been living far beneath his privileges.

from the FCSS desk

This is an old story and probably outdated in that anyone who is able to go on a cruise ship today, would probably ask up front, what all is included in the price of the ticket? Most people today wouldn't have made the same mistake. However, there are some messages in the story. One message is that the man had a dream, planned for its achievement and was able to accomplish his goal. Another message can be highlighted through joking about it. That is, the man could have offered to pay for one meal just as a treat for himself. And then, he would have been told that all meals were already paid for in the price of his ticket. So the message can be – its O.K. to give your-self a treat once in awhile. Another message would be, if he had taken the time to talk to more people, he might have learned sooner what his ticket actually included. Yes, it is amazing what we can learn when we talk to other people. By joining with them in activities, and such, we will be able to enjoy what we are participating in. Yes the man was able to see the Mediterranean Sea, streets of Rome, Athens, and Istanbul, but did he really feel his dream?

For example, all of us recently had the opportunity to celebrate Canada's birthday of 144 years. We made sure the flag was raised and O Canada was sung. There was a parade and many activities we could all become involved in if we chose to be involved. It was a time to do things with family and friends. It also was a time many, many volunteers and supporters became involved and made sure everything was in place for the big celebration of Canada Day.

Nevertheless, too often our actions suggest that we live far beneath our potential of recognizing and being grateful that we are Canadians. Yes, we recently saw the Postal Strike end (and some of us older people are recognizing the value of getting involved with net-banking instead of mailing cheques in the mail.) Yes, this hurt individuals, families and businesses.

Looking beyond the Post Office, we learned it seems like each Province of Canada has experienced some weather problems that has caused hardships for some individuals, families both personally and on a larger scale – the whole employment/business picture. The out of control fires in Slave Lake, the floods in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Quebec, etc. Of yes, British Columbia, Vancouver in particular, experienced some persons who decided to destroy property because the Stanley Cup wasn't able to stay in Canada.

So when you look at all these examples, one could say in the last few months, Canadians have experienced some things Mother Nature gave them to deal with, some things unions gave them to deal with and some things which are just right embarrassing. But, there is a bottom line. We are Canadians and we will recognize our potential to be proud and grateful to be Canadians. It is not a dream – it is real with many privileges!

Record entries stampede at Stoney Lake

VICKI BROOKER
Staff Writer

For 49 years, the annual Stoney Lake Stampede has attracted competitors and fans from far and near, and this year was no exception, with a record-high 342 entries coming into the arena in Saturday evening's and Sunday afternoon's performances and the Sunday morning slack – and that's not even counting the locals who took part in Saturday afternoon's Ranch Rodeo.

The show's final Bareback rider, Gerard

Overby of Wainwright, scored a winning 65 points on the re-ride he was offered when his first mount, Les Trach's 'War Bonnet,' lost its footing. The re-ride moved Reeve McCormack of Wainwright and Stuart DeRidder of Nanton, both with 64, down to a tie for second and third.

Being the last man out of the chute was also successful for Lane Watt of Hardisty, who rode 'Holy Smokes' to another 65-point win in the Novice Horse Riding.

Dillon Berkshire of Delburne rode high, wide and handsome in the Saddle Bronc on Sunday afternoon, scoring a 70 aboard 'Pistol.'

The youngest rough stock riders climbed above the 70 mark for their wins, Austin Nash of Sangudo with a 71 in the Junior Steer Riding and Justin Hodgson of Wetaskiwin winning the Junior Bulls with a 74.

Sunday afternoon was not a success for most of the timed events, including the Tie Down ropers, who couldn't match the 10.0 seconds that Logan Bird tied up in the slack.

The Steer Wrestling was also determined in the slack, when Justin Miller got the job done in a rapid 4.9 seconds, with Casey Lawes of Provost coming closest in the final performance with a 7.0.

Catlin Stark tripped the timer at 16.467 during the slack to win the Ladies Barrel Racing. Erica Leveille of Innisfail led the way in the Junior Barrels with a 16.933, while Jessica Gunsch of Thorsby won the Pee Wee Barrels with an 18.115, both on Sunday afternoon.

Team Roping also was determined Sunday afternoon, when Shelby Foster and Orin Ellis of Drayton Valley edged out the slack leaders with a nice 7.2-second run.

Rain hit Sunday's rodeo before the big bulls slammed their way out of the chutes to dump their riders in the considerably dampened dust, giving Saturday's leaders, Dallas Turner and Jake Stemo, with identical 73 point scores, the joint win.

Even a downpour couldn't dampen the enthusiasm for the annual Wild Steer Stoneboat Race, with the Cory Marcoux team the first to rope, saddle, hitch and ride in this signature event.

Sunday's rodeo also included the naming of Elizabeth and David Reitsema as the Best Dressed Cowgirl and Cowboy, and a huge crowd of youngsters taking part in the calf scramble. An open-air dance featuring Tiffany Dowhan, a country-style trade show and a pancake breakfast were also part of the very successful weekend.

Brother and sister, David and Elizabeth Reitsema, were named Stoney Lake's Best Dressed Cowboy and Cowgirl, and took home the Clifford Swedgan Memorial trophies, presented by Pat Swedgan.

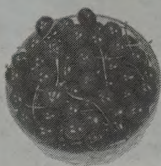

Young saddle bronc rider Lane Watt of Hardisty shows classic style as his mount leaps high in the air in the Novice Horse Riding at Sunday's Stoney Lake Stampede.

'Marksman' visits Mosquitoes

When Mark "the Marksman" Letestu stopped by and took pictures with the Mosquitoes Sox team and signed autographs for them, it capped off a terrific season. And what really impressed the "Marksman" the most, were the new Sox uniforms and hats, because when he played mosquito ball here in Elk Point we had a mismatch of uniforms and they were very ratty looking.

Two weekends ago the Mosquito Sox hosted the Lakeland League year-end tournament and even the weather cooperated, it was cloudy and cool all day, but the rain did stay away, so the boys could play. Hats off to coaches Darcy and Sheena Pankiw who did a wonderful job of hosting for the very first time and for leading this team, taking them from a team where some boys had never picked up a baseball before, to a team that we could all be proud of.

Earlier in the week, the mosquitoes traveled to Lac La Biche on a Tuesday night with only nine players, losing a nail biter 20 to 19.

Then on Thursday night at home the Mosquitoes faced Elizabeth Colony. This was a team that had beaten the boys twice before, so it was especially sweet when the boys won this one in the bottom of the last inning. Garrett McGilliveray, Braiden Fairbairn, Angus McFarlane, Kyle Smith and Graham Stuparyk all on the mound firing some major heat in this one. Back catchers Chad "Pickpocket" Poitras keeping the opposition honest on the bags with his pick offs and Kaiden "K-Rock" Evans-Anderson covering the plate, blocking wild pitches and holding the runners on third. Closer Alex Hunter coming in the top of the sixth, three up, three down, he sent the batter back to the dugout giving the boys a chance to win. Down quite a few runs in the last inning the boys would rally, Dustyn Pankiw, Cody Fairbairn, Hayden "Hot wheels" Ludlage and Kaiden "K-Rock" Evans-Anderson coming through with some timely hits to get on base, clean up batter Alex Hunter coming in with a grand slam that that sent the boys home with a huge victory.

Saturday morning, the first game of the tournament with an early 8.30am start, with only one spare body on the bench, and the start of summer holidays as well, you might think the boys would come out a little flat, but no sir, they were ready to play, defeating Cold Lake. Cody Fairbairn, Hayden "Hot wheels" Ludlage, Braiden Fairbairn and Graham Stuparyk all chucking some great innings. Tyson Gadwa, Dustyn Pankiw, Alex Hunter and Kaiden Evans-Anderson all were hammering the ball deep into the outfield.

After winning their first game the boys had some batting practice in the cage, then played the semi-final against the league winners, the top team from Bonnyville. They battled hard, but didn't have enough steam left, losing this one, but showing lots of positive improvement since the start of the season and looking forward to next season.

In the peewee division, all star Austin "Ozzie" Stafford was signed up by the Goodfish peewees to play provincials. We will have some more updates on that next week. And the Midget Sox travelled to Acme this past weekend to play some tougher competition playing against Acme, Heisler and South Jasper Place. Details next week.

And now for the K.A.Campbell quote of the week: "Doctors tell me I have the body of a 30 year old. I know I have the brain of a 15-year old. If you've got both, you can play baseball. "Last week's answer to: "I think a baseball field must be the most beautiful thing in the world. It's so honest and precise. And we play on it. Every star gets humbled. Every mediocre player has a great moment. "— Jim Lefebvre.
